The following Act of the Governor of Bombay in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor on the 9th October 1918 and the assent of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General on the 28th October 1918 and is published for general information :—

Bombay Act No. IX of 1918.

(First published, after having received the assent of the Governor General, in the "Bombay Government Gazette" on the 11th November 1918.)

An act further to amend the Bombay District Police Act, 1890.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bombay District Police Act, 1890, in manner hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:— Bom. IV of 1890.

1. This Act may be called the Bombay District Police (Amendment) Act, 1918. Short title.

2. After section 61 of the Bombay District Police Act, 1890, the following section shall be inserted, namely:— Bom. IV of 1890. Insertion of new section 61A.

"61A. (1) Where it appears to Government, from the report of the magistrate of a district or on the representation of a local authority, that in any local area subject to the jurisdiction or control of such magistrate or authority cattle are habitually allowed to stray and that such cattle trespass on land and damage crops or other produce thereon, Government may by notification direct that the provisions of this section shall have operation in such local area. In such notification Government may direct that this section shall apply to cattle generally or to such kind or kinds of cattle as may be specified in the notification, and the provisions of this section shall in such local area be read and construed accordingly. Special provisions respecting cattle habitually allowed to stray.

(2) In any local area in which this section is in operation, any person who, through neglect or otherwise, fails to keep in confinement or under restraint between one hour after sunset and sunrise any cattle which are his property or in his charge shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees or, on a second or any subsequent conviction, with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with imprisonment which may extend to six months or with both.

Explanation.—Cattle shall not be deemed to be kept in confinement within the meaning of this sub-section unless they are effectively confined within a fence, wall or other enclosure, and shall not be deemed to be kept under restraint within the meaning of this sub-section unless they are effectively restrained by means of a rope or other attachment.

(3) Any person may seize any cattle not being kept in confinement or under restraint as required by this section and may take or send the same to the nearest cattle-pound, and the owner and other persons concerned shall thereon become subject to the provisions of the cattle-trespass Act, 1871. All officers of police and all police patels and all members of the village police shall, when required, aid in preventing resistance to such seizures and rescues from persons making such seizures. I of 1871.

(4) Any fine imposed under this section may, without prejudice to any other means of recovery provided by law, be recovered by sale of all or any of the cattle in respect of which the offence was committed, whether they are the property of the person convicted of the offence or were only in his charge when the offence was committed."

By order of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor of Bombay,

R. B. MILNE,
Secretary to the Legislative Council of the Governor of Bombay.

Bombay, 9th November 1918.

Whereas complaints have been made to the District Magistrate, that owners of cattle, and particularly Gowlies, allow their cattle to stray at night for the purpose of grazing and that in consequence much damage is caused to private property as well as danger and annoyance to the public, the District Magistrate hereby notifies the following rules under Section 39 (e) of the Bombay ----- District Police Act (No. IV of 1890) and directs that they shall apply to the whole area comprised within the limits of the Dharwar Municipality.

(1) No owner of cattle shall drive or allow his cattle to be driven, along any street or road within the limits of the Dharwar Municipality between the hours of 9 P.M. and 5 A.M. All cattle found on the streets or roads in contravention of this rule will, if seized ~~at once~~ be sent to the pound. The owner of such cattle, if known, will be prosecuted on proof of ownership for noncompliance with the rule and will be liable to punishment with imprisonment for a month or fine which may extend to Rs. 200 or -- both under Section 188 I.P.C. in addition to cattle-pound fees payable for - impounded cattle.

(2) No herd of cattle shall be driven along the street or roads within the Municipal limits unless there is one competant driver to every 20 head of cattle or such less number as may be driven in one herd, Owners contravening this rule will be liable to the penalty indicated in the foregoing rule under Section 188 I.P.C..

Capt.
Nawab Sahib

Criminal Appeal No. 1 of 1921.

In the Court of the District Magistrate at Savanur.

1. Prabhu
2. Jogya } bin Basapa of Domvar matwar. } Appellants

Versus

Savanur State.

(1) In this case, the appellants, have been bound over to be of good behaviour, under Section 109-110 Criminal Procedure Code by the Magistrate I Class on the 3rd October 1921 for a period of one year from 31st August 1921.

(2) The appellants have preferred this appeal, on the alleged ground that the Magistrate I Class refused them their right of recalling prosecution witnesses, after they entered their defence, in spite of his having followed the procedure laid down for enquiry and trial of warrant cases and urge that the same has occasioned a failure of justice. This is the only ground the appellants put forth and on which they seek to reverse the judgment and order of the lower court.

(3) It is therefore to be seen whether the appellants, during the enquiry in the lower court, were entitled to the right of recalling prosecution witnesses, when the appellants were asked by the lower court, to produce evidence on their behalf and whether this refusal of the Magistrate will tauntamount to an irregularity as occasioning a failure of justice, the judgment and order of the lower court deserves to be reversed under Section 537 Cr.Pr.Code.

(4) On perusal of the papers of enquiry held by the Magistrate First Class, it is evident, that, as the examination in chief of each of the prosecution witnesses was finished the appellants were distinctly asked to cross-examine the witness they declined to do so. When the evidence on behalf of the prosecution was taken, the appellants were asked to produce evidence on their behalf. No charge was framed under Section 254 Cr. Pr. Code. Hence the Magistrate was justified in not resorting to Section 256 Cr.Pr.Code. This Section Viz. Sec. 256 Cr. Pr. Code is the only provision, by which the appellan can claim the right of recalling the prosecution witnesses. The pleader for the appellants agrees with the views of the court, that, section 256 Cr. Pr. Code is not applicable to -- cases under sections 109and 110 Cr. Pr. Code. Besides, it is clearly laid down in Section 117 Cr. Pr. Code that enquiries under section 109 or 110 should be as far as practicable be -- carried on according to the procedure, laid down for conducting trial of warrant cases. Hence, the Magistrate holding -- enquiry in such cases, is not intended by law, to strictly abide by the procedure laid down for conducting -- warrant cases.

(5) The pleader for the appellants urges that the -- appellants had the right of recalling prosecution witnesses -- according to Section 257 Cr. Pr. Code . This Section provides that, the court should compel the attendance of witnesses, -- whom the accused, are entitled to call on their behalf. The appellants were not entitled to recall prosecution witnesses, under this section viz. 257 Cr. Pr. Code as urged by the pleader for appellants. It has been shown above that in warrant cases the accused has a right of recalling prosecution witnesses as per section 256 Cr. Pr. Code. It has been shown above that -- this section is not applicable to the enquiry case under appeal

(6) For all these reasons, I do not think that the -- appellants could have claimed as of right, the right of recalling prosecution witnesses.

(7) The pleader for the appellants urges that, the Magte class first granted his request of recalling the prosecution witnesses and subsequently withdrew his grant. As remarked by me above, the magistrate I Class was to conduct this enquiry as far as practicable according to the procedure laid down for -- warrant cases. It was therefore his mere discretion either to grant or to refuse the request of the appellants in this respect the pleader urges that, the Magistrate First Class should not have withdrawn his own order, which he thinks is illegal. But, I do not see, under what provision of law, the pleader urges this point. The Magistrate had first granted the process for -- attendance of prosecution witnesses, which he subsequently -- withdrew, on its strongly being opposed by other party. This withdrawl of process on the part of the Magistrate has -- been made much of by the pleader for appellants. It appears that the Magistrate., while granting the process for prosecution witnesses a second time, granted the same exparte, an as a result of which, his procedure has had to be questioned

8) As regards whether the refusal of the Magistrate First Class, to allow the appellants to recall prosecution witnesses, amounts to an irregularity as occasioning a -- failure of justice - It has already been sufficiently shown above that the appellants could not have recalled the prosecution witnesses as of right. Manifestly therefore, it is no irregularity on the part of the Magistrate to have refused the process to recall prosecution withesses . There is -- therefore no question of failure of justice.

9) As can be seen from Ex. nil dated 31st August 1921 the appellants put in a list of witnesses to be called and heard on their behalf; but, subsequently their pleader put in another application Ex.22 stating that the appellants had no evidence to adduce on their behalf. The pleader for the appellants urges that fresh evidence on behalf of the appell -ants was not considered necessary as the evidence of the prosecution which was not subjected to cross-examination -- was not a proper tetimony. His contention would have been tenable, if no opportunity was given to the appellants to cross-examine the witnesses for prosecution . I am not -- inclined to believe in the argument of the appellants. Th appeal is therefore dismissed.

10) The Magistrate First Class was not justified i passing an order under Section 112 Cr. Pr. Code, after having heard the witnesses for prosecution. It is evident from the provision of the said Section, that it should be passed as a preliminary order before the enquiry under Sec 117 Cr. Pr. Code commences. If he had passed accordingly i would have amounted to the appellants' having entered thei defence and the present question of right of recalling -- witnesses would not have arisen at all.

Further the Magistrate has ordered that the -- appellants should furnish security retrospectively, from 31 August 1921 and not from the date of judgment passed by him viz. 3rd October 1921. The order passed by him on 31st Augus 1921 was a preliminary order passed by him under Section 112 Cr. pr. Code. The final order and judgment is to take effect from the date on which it is announced. The order preliminar as it is, was confirmed by him in his final order passed on the 3rd October 1921. The appellants therefore could not be looked upon as being bound over while they were under trial. So, the final order of the lower court is modified to the -- extent that the said Prabhu and Jogya bin Basappa of Dombar-mattur should be bound over for a period from 3rd October 1921 to 31st August 1922. This modification should be commun-cated to the appellants and the Jail authorities and as well to the police.
